- FOODIE ACTIVITIES IN TOOWOOMBA -

Do you have a budding little foodie in your family? Luckily there's a whole range of kid-friendly adventures in Toowoomba that are all about food and drink – from museums to handmade chocolates. Get out and about for some foodie exploring!

COBB + CO MUSEUM

Cobb + Co Museum has an ever-changing roster of exhibitions, events and family-friendly activities. There's talks, tours, workshops, and more. The great thing about Cobb + Co is that the exhibitions are often hands-on for kids to interact with. Follow your exploration with a delicious morning tea of scones at Cobb's Coffee Shop. If you visit on a Saturday morning, you'll also be able to check out the weekly farmers markets next door.

CHOCOLATE COTTAGE

This licensed café serves great breakfast and lunch options, as well as coffee, cakes, and beautiful handmade chocolates. The picturesque setting offers views over the escarpment, and is perfect for the whole family to enjoy together. There are other boutiques dotted around the courtyard, making it a lovely place to explore as the children play on the lawn.

WALTON STORES

Walton Stores offers a hub of dining options right in the middle of the city – plus a big screen for movie nights, a stage for live music, and space to run around. Some of the dining options here include Zambrero (delicious Mexican food), Hello Harry (burgers) and Konig's Biergarten (German sausages and wood-fired pizzas), plus Uva Wine Bar! There's always something happening at Walton Stores.
