

With public parks left, right and centre – as well as foodie spots to stock up on supplies – Toowoomba is perhaps the perfect picnicking city (if we do say so ourselves). We've rounded up some of our favourite spots to spread a blanket, as well as our selections of picnic foods from local shops and cafés.

DELI DELICIOUS

Home to Toowoomba's largest selection of cheese, Deli Delicious is a one-stop-shop for picnicking supplies. As well as a huge selection of deli meats, their salad bar is full of freshly prepared quiches, savoury tarts, croissants and salads. They are also able to prepare a platter for you, but ensure you call ahead to order. And while you're here, it would be a shame not to pick up a few bottles of locally-made vinegars, oils or sauces as well.

PARISIANN PATISSERIE

Sweet teeth, listen up! ParisiAnn is a haven of all things sugar, chocolate and pastry. Owned and operated by husband and wife team Mark and Annie, the menu is ever-changing as they experiment with local ingredients and international trends. Depending on the day you visit, you might find individual gluten-free blueberry cheesecakes, a traditional apple pie using Stanthorpe apples, or delicious pastel macaroons.
